Registration: 1.00pm
Pool session: 1.30-3.00pm

This Swimming Festival is for disabled children under the age of 16 wishing to develop new swimming skills and find out more about local swimming opportunities.

Swimmers will take part in a range of fun activities designed to showcase individual ability. The festival is open to swimmers of all abilities.

All participants will receive personalised advice on other opportunities available to them based on their swimming ability and home location after the event.

This session will be attended by a representative of Swim England who is available to discuss the local Para-Swimming Pathway.
